(المعجم ٢٩) - (بَابُ فَضْلِ الشَّهَادَةِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى) (التحفة ٢)

[4867] 108 - (1877) It was narrated from Anas bin Mâlik that the Prophet ﷺ said: "There is no soul that dies, having a good (reward) with Allâh, that would like to return to this world, or to have this world and everything in it, except the martyr, who wishes that he could come back to this world and be killed (again), because of what he sees of the virtue of martyrdom."

[٤٨٦٧] ١٠٨ - (١٨٧٧) وَحَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو خَالِدٍ الْأَحْمَرُ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ وَحُمَيْدٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ [بْنِ مَالِكٍ] عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَا مِنْ نَفْسٍ تَمُوتُ، لَهَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ، يَسْرُهَا أَنَّهَا تَرْجِعُ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا، وَلَا أَنَّ لَهَا الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا، إِلَّا الشَّهِيدُ، [فَإِنَّهُ] يَتَمَتَّى أَنْ يَرْجَعَ فَيُقْتَلَ فِي الدُّنْيَا، لِمَا يَرَى مِنْ فَضْلِ الشَّهَادَةِ».

قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ يُحَدِّثُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ، يُحِبُّ أَنْ يَرْجَعَ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا، وَأَنْ لَهُ مَا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ، غَيْرُ الشَّهِيدِ، فَإِنَّهُ يَتَمَنَّى أَنْ يَرْجَعَ فَيُقْتَلَ عَشْرَ مَرَّاتٍ، لِمَا يَرَى مِنَ الْكَرَامَةِ».

[4869] 110 - (1878) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: “It was said to the Prophet ﷺ: ‘What is equivalent to Jihâd in the cause of Allâh (glorified and exalted is He)?’ He said: ‘You are not able for that.’” He said: “They repeated the question two or three times, and each time he (ﷺ) said: ‘You are not able for that.’ The third time, he said: ‘The likeness of one who strives in the cause of Allâh is that of one who fasts, prays Qiyâm and obeys Allâh, and does not falter in his fasting or prayer, until the one who is fighting in Jihâd in the cause of Allâh returns.”

[٤٨٦٩] ١١٠ - (١٨٧٨) حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ ابْنُ مَنْصُورٍ: حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْوَاسِطِيُّ عَنْ سَهِيلِ بْنِ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قِيلَ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ: مَا يَعْدُلُ الْجِهَادَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ [عَزَّ وَجَلَّ؟] قَالَ: «لَا تَسْتَطِيعُوهُ» قَالَ: فَأَعَادُوا عَلَيْهِ مَرَّتَيْنِ أَوْ ثَلَاثًا، كُلُّ ذَلِكَ يَقُولُ: «لَا تَسْتَطِيعُوهُ». وَقَالَ فِي الثَّالِثَةِ: «مِثْلُ الْمُجَاهِدِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ كَمِثْلِ الصَّائِمِ الْقَائِمِ الْقَانِتِ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ، لَا يَقْتُرُ مِنْ صِيَامٍ وَلَا صَلَاةٍ، حَتَّى يَرْجَعَ الْمُجَاهِدُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى».

Today is Friday, so when I have prayed Jumu‘ah, I will go in and ask him (the Prophet ﷺ) about that concerning which you are differing.”

Then Allâh revealed the words: ‘Do you consider the providing of drinking water to the pilgrims and the maintenance of Al-Masjid Al-Harâm (at Makkah) as equal to the worth of those who believe in Allâh and the Last Day, and strive hard and fight in the cause of Allâh? They are not equal before Allâh. And Allâh guides not those people who are the wrongdoers.’^[1]

He said: "A man who strives in Jihâd in the cause of Allâh with his wealth and his self." He said: "Then who?" He said: "A believer in a mountain pass who worships Allâh his Lord, and spares the people from his evil."

Or, a man who lives with his sheep at the top of one of these mountains or in the bottom of one of these valleys, establishing regular prayer, paying Zakât and worshipping his Lord till the inevitable (i.e., death) comes to him and there is nothing between him and the people except good (i.e., he is on good terms with everyone).”

[4934] 160 - (1912) It was narrated from Anas bin Mâlik that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ used to enter upon Umm Ḥarâm bint Milhân^[1] and she would give him food. Umm Ḥarâm was married to 'Ubâdah bin Aṣ-Ṣâmit. [1] Umm Ḥarâm bint Milhân: The scholars said that the Prophet ﷺ was a Maḥram to her, but they differed as how that was so. Ibn 'Abdul-Barr and others said that she was one of his maternal aunts through breastfeeding. Others said that she was the maternal aunt of his father or grandfather, because 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib's mother was from Banû An-Najjâr.

ابْنُ هِشَامٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ

[1] At the time of Mu'āwiyah: Most scholars of biography are of the view that this happened during the caliphate of 'Uthmān bin 'Affān, may Allāh be pleased with him, during that Umm Harām and her husband traveled to Cyprus, where she fell from her mount and died, and was buried there. Based on this, the words: "At the time of Mu'āwiyah" refer to the time of Mu'āwiyah's sea campaign, not the time of his caliphate.

“The Prophet ﷺ came to us one day and took a nap in our house, then he woke up smiling. I said: ‘Why are you smiling, O Messenger of Allâh, may my father and mother be sacrificed for you?’ He said: ‘I have been shown some people of my Ummah riding on the surface of this sea, like kings on thrones.’ I said: ‘Pray to Allâh to make me one of them.’ He said: ‘You will be one of them.’” She said: “Then he slept, then he woke again, smiling. I asked him (about that) and he said something similar. I said: ‘Pray to Allâh to make me one of them.’ He said: ‘You will be one of the first.’”

He said: “‘Ubâdah bin Aş-Şâmit married her after that, and he went on a campaign by sea and took her with him. When she arrived, a mule was brought for her and she rode it, but she fell down and broke her neck.”

We stayed on the coast for half a month, and we were stricken with such intense hunger that we ate leaves, and it was called the Army of Leaves. Then the sea threw out to us a beast called Al-'Anbar (sperm whale) and we ate from it for half a month and rubbed its fat on our bodies, until our bodies grew strong. Abû 'Ubaidah took one of its ribs and set it up, then he looked for the tallest man in the army and the tallest camel. He mounted the man on the camel, and he passed beneath it. And a number of men sat in its eye socket, and we extracted such and such number of pitchers of fat from its eye socket. 'Abû 'Ubaidah used to give each one of us a handful of dates at a time, then he gave us one date at a time, and when he ran out we felt its loss."

While I was gathering the equipment for my two she-camels, such as saddles, sacks and ropes, and my two she-camels were sitting by the door of an apartment belonging to an Anṣārī man until I collected those things, my two she-camels were attacked; their humps were cut off, their flanks cut open and their livers taken out. Chapter 13. The Etiquette Of Eating And Drinking, And Rulings Thereon

[5259] 102 - (2017) It was narrated that Hudhaifah said: "When we attended a meal with the Prophet ﷺ, we would not place our hands on the food until the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did so first. On one occasion we attended a meal with him, and a girl came (running) as if she was being pushed. She went to place her hand on the food and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took hold of her hand. Then a Bedouin came as if he was being pushed, and he took hold of his hand. Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'The Shaitān considers food permissible so long as the Name of Allāh has not been mentioned over it. He brought this girl so that he might make it permissible (for himself) by means of her, and I took hold of her hand.

It was narrated that Hudhaifah bin Al-Yamân said: “When we were invited to a meal with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ...” and he mentioned a Hadîth like that of Abû Mu‘âwiyah (no. 5259), but he said: “As if he was being chased,” and concerning the girl he said, “as if she was being chased.” And he mentioned the Bedouin’s arrival before that of the girl, and at the end of the Hadîth he added: “Then he (ﷺ) mentioned the Name of Allâh and ate.”

If the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ comes to us on his own, we can give him enough for him to eat his fill, but if someone else comes with him it will not be enough for them.'" Abû Hurairah said: "A man came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ to be hosted as a guest, but he did not have anything to offer him. He said: 'Won't some man host him, and Allâh will have mercy on him?' An Anṣârî man who was called Abû Ṭalḥah stood up and took him to his house..." and he quoted a Hadîth like that of Jarîr (no. 5359), and he mentioned the revelation of the Verse as Waki' mentioned it (no. 5360).

[5362] 174 - (2055) It was narrated that Al-Miqdâd said: "I came with two companions of mine, and our hearing and sight had been affected by hunger. We presented ourselves to the Companions of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, but none of them could host us. We came to the Prophet ﷺ and he took us to his family. There were three goats there and the Prophet ﷺ said: 'Milk them and we will share the milk.' We used to milk them and each one of us would drink his share, and we would set aside the Prophet's share for him. He would come at night and would say Salâm in such a manner that would not wake one who was sleeping, but one who was awake would hear it. Then he would go to the Masjid and pray, then he would come to his drink and drink it. One night the Shaitân came to me when I had drunk my share

I went to a vessel that belonged to the family of Muḥammad ﷺ, that they used for milking, and I milked (the goat) into it until it filled with foam, and I brought it to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. He said: 'Did you have your drinks tonight?' I said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, drink.' He drank and handed it back to me. I said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, drink.' He drank then handed it back to me. When I realized that the Prophet ﷺ had drunk his fill and I had earned the blessing (of his supplication), I laughed so much that I fell to the ground. The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Have you been up to no good, O Miqdâd?' I said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, what happened is such-and-such and I did such-and-such.' The Prophet ﷺ said: 'This is nothing but a mercy from Allâh, Glorified and Exalted is He. Why didn't you tell me so that we could have woken our two companions and they could have had some?' When evening came, we brought food to them but they refused to eat and said: 'Not until the head of the household comes and eats with us.' I said to them:

أَبَدًا، قَالَ: وَائِمُ اللَّهِ! مَا كُنَّا نَأْخُذُ مِنْ لُقْمَةٍ إِلَّا رَبًّا مِنْ أَسْفَلِهَا أَكْثَرَ مِنْهَا، قَالَ حَتَّى شَبِعْنَا وَصَارَتْ أَكْثَرُ مِمَّا كَانَتْ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ، فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا أَبُو بَكْرٍ فَإِذَا هِيَ كَمَا هِيَ أَوْ أَكْثَرُ، قَالَ لِامْرَأَتِهِ: يَا أُخْتُ بَنِي فِرَاسٍ! مَا هَذَا؟ قَالَتْ: لَا، وَقُرَّةَ عَيْنِي! لَهَايَ الْآنَ أَكْثَرُ مِنْهَا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ بِثَلَاثِ مِرَارٍ، قَالَ: فَأَكَلَ مِنْهَا أَبُو بَكْرٍ وَقَالَ: إِنَّمَا كَانَ ذَلِكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ، يَعْنِي يَمِينَهُ، ثُمَّ أَكَلَ مِنْهَا لُقْمَةً، ثُمَّ حَمَلَهَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَأَصْبَحَتْ عِنْدَهُ، قَالَ وَكَانَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ قَوْمٍ عَقْدٌ فَمَضَى الْأَجَلَ، فَفَرَّقْنَا اثْنَا عَشَرَ رَجُلًا، مَعَ كُلِّ رَجُلٍ مِنْهُمْ أَنْاسٌ، اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ كَمْ مَعَ كُلِّ رَجُلٍ، قَالَ: إِلَّا أَنَّهُ بَعَثَ مَعَهُمْ فَأَكَلُوا مِنْهَا أَجْمَعُونَ، أَوْ كَمَا قَالَ.

'He is a strict man and if you do not do it, I am afraid that I will be in trouble with him.' But they refused. When he came, the first thing he did was to ask: 'Did you serve your guests?' They said: 'No, by Allâh, we did not.' He said: 'Did I not tell 'Abdur-Rahmân (to do that)?' I hid from him, and he said: 'O 'Abdur-Rahmân!' I hid from him, but he said: 'O ignorant lad, I adjure you, if you can hear my voice, to come here.' So I came and I said: 'By Allâh, it is no fault of mine. They are your guests, ask them. I brought them some food but they refused to eat until you come.' He said: 'What is the matter with you? Will you not accept our hospitality?' Abû Bakr said: 'By Allâh, I will not eat tonight.' They said: 'By Allâh, we will not eat until you eat.' He said: 'I have never seen a worse night than tonight. Woe to you, what is the matter with you? Why do you not accept our hospitality?' Then he said: 'What I did at first was from the Shaiân. Bring the food.' So the food was brought, and he said the Name of Allâh and ate, and they ate. When morning came he went to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, they fulfilled their oath but I broke mine.' He said: 'Rather you are the most sincere of them and you are the best of them.'

فَأَبَوْا، فَقَالُوا: حَتَّى يَجِيءَ أَبُو مَرْزِلِنَا فَيَطْعَمَ مَعَنَا، قَالَ: فَقُلْتُ لَهُمْ: إِنَّهُ رَجُلٌ حَدِيدٌ، وَإِنَّكُمْ إِنْ لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا خِفْتُ أَنْ يُصِيبَنِي مِنْهُ أَدَى، قَالَ: فَأَبَوْا، فَلَمَّا جَاءَ لَمْ يَبْدَأْ بِشَيْءٍ أَوَّلَ مِنْهُمْ، فَقَالَ: أَفَرَعْتُمْ مِنْ أَضْيَافِكُمْ؟ قَالَ: قَالُوا: لَا، وَاللَّهِ! مَا فَرَعْنَا، قَالَ: أَلَمْ أَمُرْ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ؟ قَالَ: وَتَنَحَّيْتُ عَنْهُ، فَقَالَ: يَا عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ! قَالَ: فَتَنَحَّيْتُ عَنْهُ، قَالَ: فَقَالَ: يَا غُثْرُ! أَقْسَمْتُ عَلَيْكَ! إِنْ كُنْتَ تَسْمَعُ صَوْتِي إِلَّا جِئْتُ، قَالَ: فَجِئْتُ قَالَ: فَقُلْتُ: وَاللَّهِ! مَا لِي ذَنْبٌ، هَؤُلَاءِ أَضْيَافُكَ فَسَلُّهُمْ، قَدْ أَتَيْتُهُمْ بِقِرَاهُمْ فَأَبَوْا أَنْ يَطْعَمُوا حَتَّى تَجِيءَ، قَالَ: فَقَالَ: مَا لَكُمْ؟ أَلَا تَقْبَلُوا عَنَّا قِرَاحُكُمْ؟ قَالَ: فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: فَوَاللَّهِ! لَا أَطْعَمُهُ اللَّيْلَةَ، قَالَ: فَقَالُوا: فَوَاللَّهِ! لَا نَطْعَمُهُ حَتَّى تَطْعَمَهُ، قَالَ: فَقَالَ مَا رَأَيْتُ كَالشَّرِّ كَاللَّيْلَةِ قَطُّ، وَيَلَكُمْ! مَا لَكُمْ؟ أَلَا تَقْبَلُوا عَنَّا قِرَاحُكُمْ؟ قَالَ: ثُمَّ قَالَ: أَمَّا الْأُولَى فَمِنْ الشَّيْطَانِ، هَلُمُّوا قِرَاحُكُمْ، قَالَ: فَجِيءَ بِالطَّعَامِ فَسَمَّى فَأَكَلَ وَأَكَلُوا، قَالَ: فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحَ غَدَا عَلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! بَرُّوا وَحَبِشْتُ، قَالَ: فَأَخْبَرَهُ فَقَالَ: «بَلْ أَنْتَ أَبْرُهُمْ وَأَخْيَرُهُمْ».

He said: "And I did not hear of any expiation."

Two of them went to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and one went away. They stood beside the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. One of them saw a space in the circle and sat down, and the other sat behind them, but the third turned and left. When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had finished, he said: "Shall I not tell you about these three people? One of them sought refuge with Allâh and Allâh granted him refuge, the other felt shy so Allâh was merciful to him, and the third turned away, so Allâh turned away from him."

Chapter 14. It Is Permissible To Seat A Non-Mahram Woman Behind One (On A Mount) If She Is Exhausted On The Road

[5692] 34 - (2182) It was narrated from Hishâm from his father, that Asmâ' bint Abî Bakr said: “Az-Zubair married me and he did not have anything but his horse. I used to feed his horse, look after it for him, and groom it, and I used to grind date stones for his camel and feed it, and I would bring water and repair his bucket. I used to knead dough but I was not good at baking it, so some Anṣârî neighbors used to bake it for me, and they were sincere women. I used to bring the date stones from Az-Zubair's land which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had allocated to him, carrying them on my head, and it was two thirds of a parasang away. I came one day with the date stones on my head, and I met the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and a group of his Companions. He called me, then he said: 'Ikḥ, Ikḥ' (to make his camel kneel down) so that he could make me ride behind him, but I felt shy

قَالَ: إِذَا أَقْبَلْتُ أَقْبَلْتُ بِأَرْبَعٍ، وَإِذَا أَذْبَرْتُ أَذْبَرْتُ بِثَمَانٍ، فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «أَلَا أَرَى هَذَا يَعْرِفُ مَا هَهُنَا، لَا يَدْخُلَنَّ عَلَيْكُنَّ» قَالَتْ: فَحَجَبُوهُ.

[٥٦٩٢] ٣٤- (٢١٨٢) حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ ابْنُ الْعَلَاءِ أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ الْهَمْدَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ هِشَامٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي أَبِي عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ قَالَتْ: تَزَوَّجَنِي الزُّبَيْرُ وَمَا لَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ مَالٍ وَلَا مَمْلُوكٍ وَلَا شَيْءٍ، غَيْرَ فَرَسِهِ، قَالَتْ: فَكُنْتُ أَغْلِفُ فَرَسَهُ، وَأَخْفِيهِ مَوْتَهُ، وَأَسْوِشُهُ، وَأَدُقُّ النَّوْىَ لِتَاضِجِهِ، وَأَغْلِفُهُ، وَأَسْتَقِي الْمَاءَ، وَأَخْرِزُ غَرَبَهُ، وَأَعِجُنُ، وَلَمْ أَكُنْ أَحْسِنُ أَحْزِبُ، فَكَانَ يَخْزِبُ لِي جَارَاتٍ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ، وَكُنَّ نِسْوَةً صِدْقٍ، قَالَتْ: وَكُنْتُ أَتَقُلُّ النَّوْىَ، مِنْ أَرْضِ الزُّبَيْرِ الَّتِي أَقْطَعَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، عَلَى رَأْسِي، وَهِيَ عَلَى ثُلْثِي فَرَسَخٍ، قَالَتْ: فَجِئْتُ يَوْمًا وَالنَّوْىَ عَلَى رَأْسِي، فَلَقِيتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَمَعَهُ نَفَرٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِهِ، فَدَعَانِي ثُمَّ قَالَ: «إِخْ إِخْ»

because I knew of your jealousy.” He (Az-Zubair) said: “By Allâh, for you to carry the date stones on your head is worse for me to bear than your riding behind him.” She said: “Then after that Abû Bakr sent me a servant who took care of the horse for me, and it was as if he freed me from slavery.”

[5693] 35 - (...) Asmâ' said: “I used to serve Az-Zubair in the house and he had a horse, which I used to groom, and there was no part of the service that was harder for me than looking after the horse. I used to bring it grass and look after it, and groom it.” He (the sub narrator) said: “Then she got a servant. The Prophet ﷺ brought some prisoners of war and gave her a servant.” She said: “She looked after the horse for me, and she relieved me of that burden.”

A man came to me and said: “O Umm ‘Abdullâh, I am a poor man, and I want to set up business in the shade of your house.” She said: “If I allow you, Az-Zubair may refuse. Come and ask me when Az-Zubair is present.” He came and said: “O Umm ‘Abdullâh, I am a poor man and I want to set up business in the shade of your house.” She said: “Is there no place in Al-Madînah other than my house?” Az-Zubair said to him: “Why would you prevent a poor man from doing business?” He sold things until he acquired some wealth, then I sold

Chapter 20. Reciting Al-Mu'awwidhât As Ruqyah For The Sick, And Blowing Over Them

[5714] 50 - (2192) It was narrated that 'Aishah said: "If one of his family fell sick, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would blow over him

[5716] (...) A similar Hadīth (as no. 5715) was narrated from Ibn Shihâb with the chain of Mâlik, but it does not say in the Hadīth of any of them: 'Seeking its blessing,' except in the Hadīth of Mâlik. In the Hadīth of Yûnus and Ziyâd it says: "When the Prophet ﷺ fell sick he would blow over himself and recite Al-Mu'awwidhât, and he would wipe his hand over himself."

[1] Meaning one will not automatically be infected by another's ailment, rather only if Allâh has decreed it.

[2] Evil omens derived mostly from the flight of birds.

[3] Scholars mention different meanings for this pre-Islamic belief: It is a worm that comes out of the murdered person's head seeking vengeance; it refers to the owl which was considered a bad omen if seen in certain circumstances; or it was a bird that came from the bones of a dead person which would fly away. See Fath Al-Bârî and An-Nihâyah.

[4] Ṣafar it refers to the tape worm or a similar parasite. The Arabs used to say that it was more contagious than leprosy. So the negation was not of its existence, but of the superstitions surrounding it. There are also other sayings defining it, see no. 5797 and for more see Fath Al-Bârî, Chapter 25 in the Book of Medicine.

[5] The belief that a star's position brings rain.

[6] Most of the scholars explain that it refers to a certain type of Jinn that murders travelers during the night after leading them astray on their journey.

Az-Zuhrî said: “We thought that was because of their poison, and Allâh knows best.”

Sâlim said: “‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar said: ‘For a while I did not leave any snake that I saw but I killed it. One day, while I was chasing the kind of snake that lives in houses, Zaid bin Al-Khattâb or Abû Lubâbah passed by me when I was chasing it. He said: ‘Take it easy, O ‘Abdullâh.’ I said: ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ enjoined killing them.’ He said: ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ forbade killing those that live in houses.’”

When he had finished he pointed to a room in the house and said: 'Do you see this room?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'In it there was a young man of our family who was newly married. We went out with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ to (the battle of) Al-Khandaq (the Ditch) and that young man used to ask the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ for permission to go back to his wife at mid-day. He asked him for permission one day, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "Take your weapon with you, for I fear that Quraizah may harm you." So the man took his weapon and went back, and he found his wife standing in the courtyard. He ran towards her with the spear to stab her, because he was overtaken by protective jealousy (Ghîrah), but she said to him: "Put your spear down, and go inside the house so you can see what made me come out." He went inside and saw a huge snake coiled on the bed. He ran towards it with his spear and pierced it, then he came out and thrust the spear, with the snake on it, into the ground in the yard. It attacked him, and it is not known which of them died first, the snake or the young man. We said to him (the Prophet ﷺ):

[5897] 1 - (2261) It was narrated that Abû Salamah said: "I used to see dreams that made me tremble, but I did not cover myself with a blanket, until I met Abû Qatâdah and told him about that. He said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say: "Good dreams come from Allâh and bad dreams come from the Shaitân. If one of you sees a dream that he dislikes, let him spit lightly to his left three times, and seek refuge with Allâh from its evil, then it will never harm him."

[5898] (...) A similar report (as no. 5897) was narrated from Abû Qatâdah, from the Prophet ﷺ, but they did not mention in their Hadîth the words of Abû Salamah: "I used to see dreams that made me tremble, but I did not cover myself with a blanket."

Chapter 3. Interpretation Of Dreams

(المعجم ٣) - (بَابُ فِي تَأْوِيلِ الرُّؤْيَا)

[5928] 17 - (2269) Ibn 'Abbâs used to narrate that a man came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and said: "O Messenger of Allâh, last night I saw in a dream a canopy dripping with ghee and honey, and I saw people collecting it in the palms of their hands, some getting more and some getting less. And I saw a rope connecting heaven and earth. I saw you take hold of it and ascend, then another man took hold of it after you and ascended, then another man took hold of it and ascended, then another man took hold of it but it broke, then it was reconnected and he ascended.”

Abû Bakr said: “O Messenger of Allâh, may my father be sacrificed for you, by Allâh. Let me interpret it.” The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: “Interpret it.” Abû Bakr said: “As for the canopy, it is the canopy of Islam. As for the ghee and honey dripping from it, that is the Qur’ân, its sweetness and softness. As for that which the people collected of it, it is the one who learns a great deal of Qur’ân and the one who learns a little. As for the rope connecting heaven and earth, it is the Truth that you brought, you adhere to it and Allâh raises you thereby. Then another man takes hold of it after you and is raised thereby, then another man takes hold of it and is raised thereby, then another man takes hold of it, then it breaks and is reconnected, and he is raised thereby. Tell me, O Messenger of Allâh, may my father and mother be sacrificed for you, am I right or wrong?” The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: “You got some of it right and some of it wrong.” He said: “By Allâh, O Messenger of Allâh, I adjure you to tell me what I got wrong.” He said: “Do not swear.”

[5933] 19 - (2271) 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "I saw myself in a dream using a Siwâk, and two men competed to take it from me, one of whom was older than the other. The younger one got it from me, and it was said to me: 'Give it to the older one.' So I gave it to the older one."

And in this dream of mine I saw myself brandishing a sword, the upper part of which was broken. That turned out to be what happened to the believers on the Day of Uhud. Then I brandished it again and it became better than it had been before. That turned out to be what Allāh has brought about of the Conquest (of Makkah) and the unity of the believers. And I also saw some cows, and something that was good from Allāh. The cows are the group of believers on the Day of Uhud, and the good is the good that Allāh brought about after that, and the reward for sincerity that Allāh gave us after that on the Day of Badr.”

[5935] 21 - (2273) It was narrated that Ibn ‘Abbās said: “The liar Musailimah came to Al-Madinah at the time of the Prophet ﷺ and started saying: ‘If Muḥammad appoints me as his successor I will follow him.’ He came with a large number of his people, and was met by the Prophet ﷺ who had Thâbit bin Qais bin Shammâs with him, and in the Prophet’s hand was a piece of palm branch. Her sons used to go to her and asked for condiments, when they did not have anything. She would go to that skin in which she used to give (ghee) to the Prophet ﷺ and would find some ghee in it. It kept providing condiment for her family until one day she squeezed it. She went to the Prophet ﷺ and he said: "Did you squeeze it?" She said: "Yes." We came to it, and two men had reached it before us. The spring was a trickle of water, like a shoelace. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked them: 'Did you touch the water at all?' They said: 'Yes.' The Prophet ﷺ rebuked them, and said to them whatever Allâh willed he should say. Then the people scooped water from the spring little by little, until they had gathered a little in a vessel. He said: 'Remember this number until we come back, if Allâh wills.' So we set off, until we came to Tabûk. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'There will be a strong wind tonight, so none of you should stand up in it, and whoever has a camel, let him hobble it tightly.'

The envoy of Ibn Al-'Almâ', the ruler of Aylah, brought a letter to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and gave him a gift of a white mule. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ wrote back to him and sent him a gift of a cloak. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ caught up with us in a valley that abounded in thorny trees. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stopped beneath a tree and hung his sword on one of its branches. The people scattered throughout the valley, seeking shade beneath the trees. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘A man came to me while I was sleeping and took the sword, then I woke up to find him standing over my head, and I did not realize (that he was there) until the sword was unsheathed in his hand. He said to me: “Who will protect you against me?” I said: “Allâh.” He said a second time: “Who will protect you against me?” I said: “Allâh.” Then he sheathed the sword, and he is sitting over there.’ Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ left him alone.”

[5960] 21 - (...) It was narrated that Hammâm bin Munabbih said: "This is what Abû Hurairah narrated to us from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ." He narrated a number of Aḥadīth, including the following: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'The likeness of myself and the Prophets who came before me is that of a man who built some houses and built them well, making them beautiful and perfect, apart from the space of one brick in one of their corners. The people started walking around them, admiring the structure, saying: "Why don't you put a brick here? Then your building will be complete."' Muhammad ﷺ said: 'I am that brick.'"

[5961] 22 - (...) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "The likeness of myself and the Prophets who came before me is that of a man who built a structure and built it well and made it beautiful, except for the space of a brick in one of its corners. The people started walking around it, admiring it and saying: 'Why is this brick missing?' I am that brick, I am the Seal of the Prophets."

فَأَحْسَنَهُ وَأَجْمَلَهُ، فَجَعَلَ النَّاسُ يُطِيفُونَ بِهِ، يَقُولُونَ: مَا رَأَيْنَا بُيُوتًا أَحْسَنَ مِنْ هَذَا، إِلَّا هَذِهِ اللَّيْنَةُ، فَكُنْتُ أَنَا تِلْكَ اللَّيْنَةُ.

[5963] 23 - (2287) It was narrated from Jâbir that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The likeness of myself and the (previous) Prophets is that of a man who built a house and made it perfect and complete, except the space of a brick. The people started to enter it and admire it, and they said: 'Were it not for the space of a brick.'" The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "I am the space of that brick, I have come and sealed the (succession of) Prophets ﷺ."

Chapter 8. When Allâh Wants To Show Mercy To A Nation, He Takes Their Prophet Before Them

(المعجم ٨) - (بَابُ إِذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى رَحْمَةً أُمَّةً قَبَضَ نَبِيَّهَا قَبْلَهَا) (التحفة ٨)

When He wants to destroy a nation, He punishes them when their Prophet is still alive, then He destroys them while he is looking on, and He relieves him by means of their destruction because they belied him and disobeyed his commands.”

Chapter 9. The Haud (Cistern) Of Our Prophet ﷺ And Its Attributes

[5966] 25 - (2289) Jundab said: “I heard the Prophet ﷺ say: ‘I will reach Al-Haud (the Cistern) ahead of you.”

[5967] (...) A similar report (as no. 5966) was narrated from ‘Abdul-Malik bin ‘Umar, from Jundab, from the Prophet ﷺ.

رَوَى ذَلِكَ عَنْهُ إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْجَوْهَرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ: حَدَّثَنِي بُرَيْدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ أَبِي بُرَيْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ إِذَا أَرَادَ رَحْمَةً أُمَّةٍ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ، قَبَضَ نَبِيَّهَا قَبْلَهَا، فَجَعَلَهُ لَهَا فَرَطًا وَسَلَفًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهَا، وَإِذَا أَرَادَ هَلَكَةَ أُمَّةٍ، عَذَّبَهَا، وَنَبِيَّهَا حَيًّا، فَأَهْلَكَهَا وَهُوَ يَنْظُرُ، فَأَقْرَّ عَيْنَهُ بِهَلَكَتِهَا حِينَ كَذَّبُوهُ وَعَصَوْا أَمْرَهُ».

[5968] 26 - (2290) It was narrated that Abû Hâzim said: "I heard Sahl say: 'I heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "I will reach the Cistern ahead of you. He who comes will drink, and whoever drinks will never be thirsty again. There will come to me some people whom I will recognize and they will recognize me, then they will be prevented from reaching me."'"

Abû Hâzim said: "And I heard An-Nu'mân bin Abî 'Ayyâsh say, when I was narrating this Hadîth to them: 'Is this what you heard Sahl say?' I said: 'Yes.'"

[5969] (2291) And I bear witness that I heard Abû Sa'eed Al-Khudrî add something and say (The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said): "They belong to me." But it will be said: "You do not know what they did after you were gone." And I will say: "Away, away with the one who changed (the religion) after I was gone."

[5970] (...) A Hadîth like that of Ya'qûb (no. 5968) was narrated from Sahl from the Prophet ﷺ, and from An-Nu'mân bin Abî 'Ayyâsh, from Abû Sa'eed Al-Khudrî, from the Prophet ﷺ.

Chapter 11. His (ﷺ) Courage

(المعجم ١١) - (بَابُ شَجَاعَتِهِ ﷺ)

(التحفة ١١)

[6006] 48 - (2307) It was narrated that Anas bin Mâlik said: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was the best of people, and he was the most generous of people and the most courageous of people. One night the people of Al-Madînah were in a state of panic, and some people went out towards the noise. They were met by the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, who was coming back, as he had gone towards the noise before them. He was riding the horse of Abû Ṭalhah bareback, with his sword around his neck, and he said: ‘Do not be afraid, do not be afraid.’ And he said: ‘We found it (the horse) to be swift-footed’ or, ‘It is swift-footed.’”

He said: “And it was a horse that was known to be slow.”

Chapter 42. The Virtues Of Mûsâ ﷺ

[6146] 155 - (339) It was narrated that Hammâm bin Munabbih said: “This is what Abû Hurairah narrated to us from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.” He narrated a number of Aḥadīth, including the following: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘The Children of Israel used to bathe naked, looking at one another’s ‘Awrah, but Mûsâ ﷺ, used to bathe alone. They said: “By Allâh, nothing is keeping Mûsâ from bathing with us but a scrotal hernia.” On one occasion he went to bathe and he put his garment on a rock, and the rock fled with his garment. Mûsâ raced after it saying: “My garment, O rock! My garment, O rock!” until the Children of Israel had seen Mûsâ’s ‘Awrah and said: “By Allâh, there is nothing wrong with him.”

“Then the rock stood still, until everyone could see it, then he took his garment and started striking the rock hard.”

Abû Hurairah said: “By Allâh, there were six or seven marks on the rock, where Mûsâ ﷺ, struck the rock.”

قَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: فَلَيْكَ أَتُكْمُ يَا بَنِي مَاءِ السَّمَاءِ.

The rock sped off, and he chased it with his stick, striking it and saying: ‘My garment, O rock! My garment, O rock!’ until it stopped near a group of the Children of Israel. how can I meet him?" It was said to him: "Carry a fish in a basket, and where you lose the fish, he will be there."

"He set off, accompanied by his servant, who was Yûsha' bin Nûn. Mûsâ عليه السلام, carried a fish in a basket. He and his slave set out walking until they came to the rock. Mûsâ عليه السلام, and his slave went to sleep, and the fish began to move in the basket until it came out of the basket and fell into the sea. Allâh halted the flow of water until it became like an arch, and it was like a tunnel for the fish, and Mûsâ and his servant were astonished. They set out for the rest of that day and the following night, and the servant of Mûsâ forgot to tell him.

The next morning Mûsâ, عليه السلام, said to his slave: "Bring us our morning meal; truly, we have suffered much fatigue in this, our journey." He had not felt tired until he passed the place where he had been enjoined to stop. He said: "Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock? I indeed forgot the fish; none but Shaitân made me forget to remember it. It took its course into the sea in a strange (way)!" Mûsâ said: "That is what we were seeking."

"So they retraced their steps until they came to the rock, where they saw a man covered with a garment.

He said: "You have knowledge from Allâh that Allâh has taught you, and I do not know it, and I have knowledge from Allâh that Allâh has taught me, and you do not know it." Mûsâ ﷺ said to him: "May I follow you so that you may teach me some of that knowledge which you have been taught by Allâh?" He said: "Verily, you will not be able to have patience with me! And how can you have patience about a thing which you know not?" Mûsâ said: "If Allâh wills, you will find me patient, and I will not disobey you at all."

Al-Khaḍr said to him: "Then, if you follow me, ask me not about anything till I myself mention of it to you." Mûsâ said: "Yes." So Al-Khaḍr and Mûsâ set out walking along the shore of the sea, and a boat passed by them. They spoke to them, asking them to carry them. They recognized Al-Khaḍr so they carried them for free. Al-Khaḍr went to one of the planks of the boat and pulled it out, and Mûsâ said to him: "These people carried us for free, and you have scuttled their boat

Al-Khaḍr took hold of his head and pulled it off and killed him. Mûsâ said to him: “Have you killed an innocent person who had killed none? Verily, you have committed an evil thing!” Al-Khaḍr said: “Did I not tell you that you can have no patience with me?” He said: “This was more grievous than the first.” Mûsâ said: “If I ask you anything after this, keep me not in your company, you have received an excuse from me.”

“Then they set off until they came to the people of a village, where they asked the people for food but they refused to entertain them. They found therein a wall that was about to collapse, and Al-Khaḍr gestured with his hand and set it straight. Ubayy bin Ka'b narrated: "I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: 'While Mūsā ؑ was among his people, reminding them of the days of Allāh – and the days of Allāh are His blessings and trials – he said: "I do not know of any man on earth who is better and more knowledgeable than me."

"Allāh revealed to him: I know best about goodness or with whom it is. In the land there is a man who is more knowledgeable than you." He said: "O Lord, guide me to him." It was said to him: "Take a salted fish with you as provision, and he will be where you lose the fish." He and his servant set out until they came to the rock, but he did not find any clue. Mūsā set out and left his servant behind, and the fish began to stir in the water, which became like a tunnel. His servant said: "Should I not catch up with the Prophet of Allāh and tell him?" But he was caused to forget. When they went beyond (that point) he said to his servant: "Bring us our morning meal; truly, we have suffered much fatigue in this, our journey." And they did not become tired until they passed that point."

He said: "Did I not tell you, that you would not be able to have patience with me?" He said: "Call me not to account for what I forgot, and be not hard upon me for my affair (with you)." Then he asked him (ﷺ) to offer the funeral prayer for him, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood up to offer prayers for him. ‘Umar stood up and caught hold of the garment of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and said: ‘O Messenger of Allâh, will you offer the funeral prayer for him when Allâh has forbidden you to pray for him?’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘Rather Allâh has given me the choice.’ He said: “Whether you ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not forgiveness for them – (and even) if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness...”^[1] And I will ask more than seventy times.’ He said: ‘But he is a hypocrite.’

“The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ offered the funeral prayer for him, then Allâh, Glorified and Exalted is He, revealed (the Verse): “And never pray (funeral prayer) for any of them (hypocrites) who dies, nor stand at his grave...”^[2]

[6209] 26 - (2401) ‘Āishah said: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was lying down in my house with his thigh or shin uncovered. Abû Bakr asked for permission to enter and he let him in while he was in that state, and he spoke to him. Then ‘Umar asked for permission to enter and he let him in while he was in that state, and he spoke to him. Then ‘Uthmân asked for permission to enter and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sat up and straightened his garment” - Muḥammad (one of the narrators) said: “I do not say that this all happened on one day” - “and he came in and he spoke to him. When he left, ‘Āishah said: ‘Abû Bakr came in and you did not stir for him, and ‘Umar came in and you did not stir for him, then ‘Uthmân came in and you sat up and straightened your garment.’ He (ﷺ) said: ‘Should I not feel shy before a man before whom the angels feel shy?’”

^[2] The word (and) is added to the translation, since as the text appears it runs together here. In the Qur’ân, these are two separate Āyah from two separate Sûrah whose references we added in the notes. In his commentary on Ṣaḥīḥ Al-Bukhārī (no. 5970), Al-Hâfiẓ Ibn Ḥajar mentioned this narration and others who recorded it only mentioning the first Āyah, and in a version of Aḥmad it does not say: “The Āyah,” and in another version of Aḥmad (1:181, no. 1567) it says: “and he recited until he reached.” So these are apparently the two separate Āyah. Finally, he says the following: “And what is apparent to me is that the two Āyah were confirmed in the original, but that some of them dropped that (mistakenly) from one of the narrators. And Allâh knows best.” Implying that both of these Āyah were revealed on that occasion. Versions of this narration are mentioned in the Tafsîr of Ibn Kathîr at both locations.

"I came to a group of the Anṣâr and Muhâjirîn and they said: 'Come, we will give you food and wine.' That was before wine was forbidden. I came to them in a garden, and they had a roasted camel head and a small skin of wine. I ate and drank with them, then I mentioned the Anṣâr and Muhâjirîn to them. I said: 'The Muhâjirîn are better than the Anṣâr.' A man took one of the jawbones of the camel head and struck me with it, and injured my nose. I came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and told him, then Allâh revealed this Verse about me and about wine:

‘Aishah said: “The wives of the Prophet ﷺ sent Zainab bint Jahsh, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, who was the one who was the closest of them to me in status before the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. I have never seen any woman who was better in religious commitment than Zainab, more fearing of Allâh, more truthful in speech, more keen to uphold family ties, more generous in giving charity, or more keen to draw close to Allâh. But she was quick to lose her temper, although she would calm down as quickly. She asked permission to enter upon the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ when the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was with ‘Aishah beneath her cover, as he was when Fâṭimah had come in. The first one said: 'My husband is like the meat of a lean camel placed at the top of a hill that it is difficult to climb, and (the meat) is not so good that one feels the urge to take it away (from that hilltop).'

The second one said: 'I will not talk about my husband because I fear that if I start I will never stop (because his faults are so many). But if I start, I will list all his faults.'

The third one said: 'My husband is tall (and nothing else). If I speak (mention his faults) he will divorce me, but if I keep quiet I will be suspended (between wifely treatment and abandonment).'

The fourth one said: 'My husband is like the night of Tihâmah (i.e., very pleasant), neither too hot not too cold, and I have no fear for him and we never get bored of each other.'

The fifth one said: 'My husband is like a leopard when he enters the house and like a lion when he leaves, and he does not ask about that which he leaves in the house.'

The sixth one said: 'As for my husband, he eats so much that nothing is left, and when he drinks he does not leave a drop. When he lies down he wraps himself and he does not touch me so that he might know my sorrow.'

The seventh one said: 'My husband is impotent and foolish,

The eleventh one said: 'My husband is Abû Zar' and how fine Abû Zar' is. He found me among the shepherds living on the side of the mountain, and he made me one of those who have horses, camels, lands and heaps of grain, and he has a great deal of wealth. As for the son of Abû Zar', he is as slim as a green branch of palm peeled from its bark, or like a sword drawn from its sheath, and the foreleg of a lamb is enough to fill him. As for the daughter of Abû Zar', how fine is the daughter of Abû Zar'. She is obedient to her father and obedient to her mother, filling out her cloak and a source of jealousy for her co-wife. As for the slave-girl of Abû Zar', how good she is. She does not disclose our affairs to others, and she does not take our squander wheat or provision, and she does not leave garbage scattered in the house like a bird's nest. One day Abû Zar' went out when the milk churned in the vessels, and he met a woman who had two sons like leopards, playing with her pomegranates (breasts) under her shirt. He divorced me and married that woman. Later on, I married another man, a generous man who was an expert rider and a fine archer. He gave me many gifts and a pair of every kind of animal, and he said: "Eat, Umm Zar', and send (food) to your family." But if I were to combine everything, it would not fill the smallest vessel of Abû Zar'."

فاطمة، [بنت النبي،] رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا

[6307] 93 - (2449) Al-Miswar bin Makhramah narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say on the Minbar: “Banū Hishām bin Al-Mughîrah asked me for permission to give their daughter in marriage to ‘Alî bin Abî Tâlib, but I will not give them permission, and I will not give them permission, and I will not give them permission, unless the son of Abū Tâlib would like to divorce my daughter and marry their daughter. My daughter is a part of me; what disturbs her disturbs me and what offends her offends me.”

'Alî bin Al-Husain narrated that when they came to Al-Madînah from Yazîd bin Mu'âwiyah, after the killing of Al-Husain bin 'Alî ؑ, he was met by Al-Miswar bin Makhramah who said to him: "Do you have anything you want me to do?" He said: "I said to him: 'No.'" He said to him: "Will you give me the sword of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ? For I fear that the people may wrest it from you. By Allāh! If you give it to me I will never give it up so long as there is still life in me. 'Alî bin Abî Tâlib proposed marriage to the daughter of Abû Jahl (to be a co-wife) to Fâtimah, and I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ addressing the people concerning that, on this Minbar of his, and I was an adolescent at that time. He said: 'Fâtimah is part of me, and I fear lest she be put to trial with regard to her religious commitment.'

Then she adorned herself for him more beautifully than she had ever done before that, and he had intercourse with her. When she saw that he was satisfied, she said: 'O Abû Ṭalḥah, do you think that if some people lent something to a household and they asked for it back, do they have the right to refuse?' He said: 'No.' She said: 'Seek reward for the loss of your son.' He got angry and said: 'You left me until I indulged myself and then you told me about my son?'

Umm Sulaim said: 'O Abû Talḥah, I do not feel what I was feeling; let's go.' So they set off, then she felt the labor pains again when they arrived, and she gave birth to a boy. My mother said to me: 'O Anas, no one should breastfeed him until you take him in the morning to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.' The next morning, I carried him and brought him to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I came to him when he was holding a branding-iron. When he saw me he said: 'Perhaps Umm Sulaim has given birth?' He said: 'Yes.' He put down the branding-iron, and I brought the baby, and put him in his lap. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ called for some 'Ajwah dates of Al-Madīnah and softened them in his mouth, then placed some in the mouth of the child, and the child started to smack his lips. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'See how the Anṣār love dates.' And he wiped his face and named him 'Abdullāh.'

Chapter 28. The Virtues Of Abû Dharr, May Allâh Be Pleased With Him

[6359] 132 - (2473) It was narrated from 'Abdullâh bin Aṣ-Ṣâmit that Abû Dharr said: "We set out from our people Ghifâr, who used to regard the sacred months as permissible.^[1] I set out with my brother Unais and our mother, and we stayed with a maternal uncle of ours. Our uncle honoured us and treated us kindly, but his people felt jealous of us, and they said: 'When you are away from your wife, Unais comes into your house (i.e., an accusation of adultery).' Our uncle came and told us of what had been said to him. I said: 'As for your past kindness, you have undone it, and we cannot stay with you after this.' We went to our camels and loaded them up, and our uncle covered himself with his garment and started weeping. We set out and halted at Makkah. Unais made a wager that our herd of camels was better than another similar herd, and they went to a soothsayer who confirmed that the herd of Unais was better, and Unais came to us with our camels and the other herd."

He (Abû Dharr) said: "I started to perform prayers, O son of my brother, three years before I met the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ." I said: "To whom?" He said: "To Allâh." I said: "What direction did you face?" He said: "I faced where my Lord directed me to. I used to pray at night until the end of the night, then I fell down (in exhaustion) like a piece of cloth until the sun rose over me.

"So Unais said: 'I have an errand in Makkah; stay here.' He went to Makkah, and he came back late. I said: 'What did you

"Unais said: 'I have heard the words of the soothsayers, and he is not a soothsayer. I compared his words to the words of poetry, and no one after me can say that he is a poet. By Allâh, he is telling the truth and they are lying.'

"I said: 'Stay here while I go and look.'"

He said: "I came to Makkah and looked for an insignificant man among them. I said: 'Where is this man whom you call Aş-Şâbi'?"^[1] He pointed at me and said: 'The Şâbi!' The people of the valley attacked me with clods of earth and bones, until I fell unconscious. I got up whenever I recovered, and it was as if I was a red idol. I went to Zamzam and washed the blood from myself, and I drank some of its water. O son of my brother, I stayed there for thirty, between nights and days, and I had no food but the water of Zamzam, but I grew so fat that I got folds on my stomach and I did not feel any hunger in my stomach.

“While the people of Makkah were sleeping deeply one moonlit night, no one was circumambulating the Ka’bah except two of their women, who were calling upon Isâf and Nâ’ilah (two of their idols). They came to me during their circumambulation and I said: ‘Marry one of them to the other.’ But they did not stop what they were saying. They came to me again and I said: ‘They are just pieces of wood like private parts’; and I could not use a metaphor. They turned away from me saying: ‘If any of our people were here they would teach you a lesson.’ They were met by the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and Abû Bakr as they were coming down the hill, and he said: ‘What is the matter with you?’ They (the two women) said: ‘The Ṣâbi’ between the Ka’bah and its cover.’ He said: ‘What did he say to you?’ They said: ‘He said to us a word that we cannot repeat.’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came and touched the (Black) Stone, then he circumambulated the Ka’bah, he and his Companion, then he prayed. When he had finished his prayer” - Abû Dharr said - “I was the first one to greet him with the greeting of Islam. I said: ‘As-Salâmu ‘alaika yâ Rasûlullâh (Peace be upon you, O Messenger of Allâh).’ He said: ‘Wa ‘alaika wa rahmatullâh (and upon you, and the mercy of Allâh).’ Then he said: ‘Who are you?’ I said: ‘I am from

Abû Bakr opened a door and brought us raisins of Aṭ-Ṭâ'if, and that was the first food I ate. I stayed for a while, then I came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and he said: 'I have been shown a land that has palm trees, and I do not think that it is any other than Yathrib. Will you convey a message from me to your people? Perhaps Allâh will benefit them through you and grant you reward through them.' I came to Unais and he said: 'What did you do?' I said: 'What I did is become Muslim and attest to the truth.' He said: 'I

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'May Allâh forgive (Ghafara) Ghifâr and may Allâh keep Aslam safe and sound (Sâlama)."

Prophet ﷺ had been sent (as the Messenger of Allâh) in Makkah, he said to his brother: 'Ride to this valley and find out for me about this man who claims to bring news from heaven, and listen to what he says, then come to me.'

"So the other man set out and came to Makkah, where he listened to what he said, then he came back to Abû Dharr and said: 'I have seen him enjoining good morals and saying words that are not poetry.' He said: 'You have not told me enough.' So he took provisions and a skin full of water and went to Makkah. He came to the Masjid and looked for the Prophet ﷺ, but he did not know what he looked like, and he did not want to ask about him. Then when night came he lay down to sleep. 'Alî saw him and realized that he was a stranger. When he saw him he followed him, and neither of them asked the other about anything, until morning came. Then he took his waterskin and provisions to the Masjid and stayed there all day, but he did not see the Prophet ﷺ until evening came.

Chapter 36. The Virtues Of Hâṭib Bin Abî Balta'ah And The People Of Badr, May Allâh Be Pleased With Them

[6406] 165 - (2498) It was narrated from Abû Burdah that his father said: "When the Prophet ﷺ had finished with (the battle of) Hunain, he sent Abû 'Âmir at the head of an army to Awtâs, where he met Duraid bin Aş-Şimmah, who was killed, and Allâh caused his companions to be defeated. Abû Mûsâ said: 'And he sent me with Abû 'Âmir.' He said: 'Abû 'Âmir was struck in the knee with an arrow by a man of Banû Jusham, and it was stuck in his knee. I came to him and said: "O uncle, who struck you?"'

Abû 'Âmir pointed him out to Abû Mûsâ and said: "That one killed me, do you see the one who struck me?" Abû Mûsâ said: "I went to him and caught up with him, and when he saw me, he ran away from me. I followed

Then I went back to Abû 'Âmir and said: 'Allâh has killed your opponent.' He said: 'Pull this arrow out.' So I pulled it out and water came out of it (the wound). He said: 'O son of my brother, go to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and convey greetings of Salâm to him from me, and say to him: "Abû 'Âmir says to you: 'Pray for forgiveness for me.'"

"Abû 'Âmir appointed me in charge of the people, then it was not long before he died. When I came back to the Prophet ﷺ, I entered upon him when he was in a house on a bed made of rope without a mattress, and the ropes had left marks on the back and sides of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. I told him what had happened to us and to Abû 'Âmir, and I said to him: 'He said: "Tell him to pray for forgiveness for me.'"

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ called for some water and he performed Wudu', then he raised his hands and said: 'O Allâh, forgive 'Ubaid Abû 'Âmir,' until I could see the whiteness of his armpits. ^[2] Hakīm; scholars differ over whether this is a description or a name. If it were a description, then it means a wise man. In Al-Isâbah Al-Hâfîz Ibn Hajar said: “Hakīm Al-Ash‘arî: I do not know of any information about him, except what occurs in the Two Ṣaḥîḥ, in the Ḥadîth of Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash‘arî, who said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “I recognize the voices of a group of the Ash‘arīs when they recite Qur’ân, when they enter at night,” - meaning in the Masjid - “Among them is a Hakīm, who, when he meets the horsemen’ - so he mentioned the Ḥadîth.” And Al-Hâfîz also said there: “Ibn At-Tin, and others among those who explained Al-Bukhârî, said that his saying: ‘Among them is a Hakīm’ is a description of a man among them, not a name. And this was reported by ‘Iyâd from his Shaikh, Abû ‘Alî Aṣ-Ṣadafî.” An-Nawawî said similar to this. See also Fath Al-Bârî (no. 4232) where he said that: “when they enter at night” means when they enter their homes after going out to the Masjid or for some work and then return, and he cited that from an-Nawawî, while what is with us in the commentary of

They belong to me and I belong to them.’”

[6412] 170 - (2504) It was narrated from 'Ā'idh bin 'Amr that Abû Sufyân came to Salmân, Şuhaib and Bilâl among a group of people, and they said: "By Allâh, the swords of Allâh did not reach the neck of an enemy of Allâh they were supposed to reach." Abû Bakr said: "Do you say this to an elder and chief of Quraish?" He went to the Prophet ﷺ and told him, and he said: "O Abû Bakr, perhaps you annoyed them, and if you have annoyed them you have annoyed your Lord."

Abû Bakr went to them and said: "O my brothers, have I annoyed you?" They said: "No, may Allâh forgive you, O my brother."

The best of them in the Jâhiliyyah will be the best of them in Islam, when they attain Fiqh (the true understanding of Islam). And you will find that among the best of people in positions of authority are those who dislike it most, before it is thrust upon them. And you will find that among the worst of people is the one who is two-faced, showing one face to these people and another face to those."

[6455] (...) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'You will find that people are of different qualities'" – a Hadîth like that of Az-Zuhrî, (no. 6454) except that in the Hadîth of Abû Zur'ah and Al-A'raj it says: "You will find the best of people in this matter are those who hate it the most until it is thrust upon them."

[6457] (...) A similar report (as Hadith no. 6456) was narrated from Abû Hurairah, and attributed to the Prophet ﷺ, and from Ibn Tâwûs from his father, who attributed it to the Prophet ﷺ, except that he said: "They are the kindest to children when they are small" and he did not say: "orphans."

Humaid said: “Abû Râfi‘ described to us how the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ described his mother when she called him, how she put her hand on her forehead then raised her head to call him.

“She said: ‘O Juraij! I am your mother, speak to me.’ She found him praying and he said: ‘O Allâh, my mother or my prayer?’ And he chose his prayer. She went away, then she came back a second time, and said: ‘O Juraij! I am your mother, speak to me.’ He said: ‘O Allâh, my mother or my prayer?’ And he chose his prayer. She said: ‘O Allâh, this is Juraij and he is my son, and I spoke to him but he refused to speak to me. O Allâh, do not let him die until he has seen prostitutes.’”

O My slaves, all of you are astray except those whom I guide, so ask Me for guidance, and I will guide you. O My slaves, all of you are hungry except those whom I feed, so ask Me for food and I will feed you. O My slaves, all of you are naked except those whom I clothe, so ask Me for clothing and I will clothe you. O My slaves, you err night and day, but I forgive all sins, so ask Me for forgiveness and I will forgive you. O My slaves, you can never do Me any harm or bring Me any benefit. O My slaves, if the first of you and the last of you, your humans and your jinn, were equal in piety like the heart of the most pious man among you, that would not add anything to My dominion. Chapter 48. When Allâh Loves A Person, He Commands Jibra'il To Love Him, And He Loves Him, And The People Of Heaven Love Him, Then He Finds Acceptance On Earth

[6705] 157 - (2637) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'When Allâh loves a person, He calls Jibra'il ﷺ, and says: "I love so-and-so, so love him." so Jibra'il loves him, then he calls out to the people of heaven: "Allâh loves so-and-so, so love him." So the people of heaven love him and he finds acceptance on earth. If Allâh hates someone, He calls Jibra'il and says: "I hate so-and-so, so hate him." So Jibra'il hates him, then he calls out to the people of heaven: "Allâh hates so-and-so, so hate him." So they hate him and he is hated on earth."

عَنْ أَبِي عِمْرَانَ الْجَوْنِيِّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ
الصَّامِتِ، عَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ: قِيلَ لِرَسُولِ
اللَّهِ ﷺ: أَرَأَيْتَ الرَّجُلَ يَعْمَلُ الْعَمَلَ مِنَ
الْخَيْرِ، وَيَحْمَدُهُ النَّاسُ عَلَيْهِ؟ قَالَ: «تِلْكَ
عَاجِلُ بُشْرَى الْمُؤْمِنِ».

[6722] (...) A similar Hadith (as no. 6721) was narrated from Ibn 'Imrân Al-Jawnî with the chain of narrators of Hammâd bin Zaid, except that in their Hadith from Shu'bah, barring 'Abduş-Şamad, it says: "The people love him for it," and in the Hadith of 'Abduş-Şamad it says: "And the people praise him for it," as Hammâd said.

[٦٧٢٢] (...) حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ

قَالَ: وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ: حَدَّثَنَا
مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ؛ وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ
الْمُسْنَى: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الصَّمَدِ؛ وَحَدَّثَنَا

عَنْ أَبِي عِمْرَانَ الْجَوْنِيِّ، بِإِسْنَادِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ
زَيْدٍ، مِثْلَ حَدِيثِهِ، غَيْرَ أَنَّ فِي حَدِيثِهِمْ
عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، غَيْرَ عَبْدِ الصَّمَدِ: وَيُحِبُّهُ
النَّاسُ عَلَيْهِ، وَفِي حَدِيثِ عَبْدِ الصَّمَدِ:

[6723] 1 - (2643) It was narrated that ‘Abdullâh said: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ – and he is the truthful, the one who is believed – told us: ‘The creation of any one of you is put together in his mother’s womb for forty days, then, he is during that (period) an ‘Alaqah^[1] for a similar period. [6750] 17 - (2654) 'Abdullâh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Âṣ said that he heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say: "The hearts of the sons of Âdam are all between two Fingers of the Most Merciful, like one heart, and He directs them as He wills." Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: "O Allâh, controller of the hearts, direct our hearts to obey You."

Verily, We have created all things with Qadar.'"^[1]

[6753] 20 - (2657) It was narrated that Ibn 'Abbâs said: I have never seen anything more relative to Lamam^[1] than what Abû Hurairah said: That the Prophet ﷺ said: "Allâh has decreed for the son of Âdam his share of Zinâ, which he will inevitably get. The Zinâ of the eyes is looking, and the Zinâ of the tongue is speaking. The heart wishes and hopes, and the private part confirms that or denies it."

Chapter 6. The One Who Starts Something Good Or Something Bad; The One Who Calls Others To Guidance Or Misguidance

[6800] 15 - (1017) It was narrated that Jarîr bin ‘Abdullâh said: “Some Bedouins came to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ wearing woollen garments,^[1] and he saw their bad condition and that they were in need, so he urged the people to give in charity, but they were so slow that (his disapproval) could be seen in his face.

“Then an Anṣârî man brought a purse of silver, then another came, then they came one after another, until signs of happiness could be seen in his face. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘Whoever starts a good practice in Islam that is followed after he is gone, there will be written for him a reward like that of those who do it, without that detracting from their reward in the slightest. Whoever starts a bad practice in Islam that is followed after he is gone, there will be written for him a burden of sin like that of those who do it, without that detracting from their burden in the slightest.’”

When they find a gathering in which Allâh is remembered, they sit with them, and encircle them with their wings, until they fill the space between earth and the first heaven. When they part, they (the angels) ascend to the heaven, and Allâh, Glorified and Exalted is He, asks them, although He knows best: 'From where have you come?' They say: 'We have come from some of Your slaves on earth, who were Glorifying You, proclaiming Your Greatness, proclaiming Your Oneness, Praising You and asking of You.' He says: 'What are they asking of Me?' They say: 'They are asking You for Your Paradise.' He says: 'Have they seen My Paradise?' They say: No, O Our Lord. He says: 'And what if they saw My Paradise?' They say: 'And they are seeking Your protection.' He says:

‘From what are they seeking My protection?’ They say: ‘From Your Fire, O Lord.’ He says: ‘And what if they saw My Fire?’ They say: ‘And they are asking You for forgiveness.’ He says: ‘I have forgiven them, and given them what they asked for, and granted them protection from that which they sought My protection.’ They say: ‘Lord, among them is so-and-so, a sinner who was merely passing by, then he sat with them.’ He says: ‘Him too I have forgiven. They are people whose companion will not be miserable.’”

Chapter 9. The Virtue Of The Supplication: “O Allâh, Give Us Good In This World And Good In The Hereafter, And Save Us From The Torment Of The Fire”

[6840] 26 - (2690) It was narrated that ‘Abdul-‘Azîz bin Suhaib said: Qatâdah asked Anas: Which supplication did the Prophet ﷺ say the most?’ He said: The supplication that he said the most was: “Allâhumma âtinâ fid-dunyâ’ hasanah wa fil-âkhirati hasanah, wa qinâ ‘adhâban-nâr. (O Allâh, give us good in this world and good in the Hereafter and save us from the torment of the Fire.)”

When Anas wanted to say a supplication, he would say these words, and when he had a specific need he would include these words in his supplication.

قَالَ: وَهَلْ رَأَوْا نَارِي؟ قَالُوا: لَا، قَالَ: فَكَيْفَ لَوْ رَأَوْا نَارِي؟، قَالُوا: وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَكَ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ: قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لَهُمْ، وَأَعْطَيْتُهُمْ مَا سَأَلُوا وَأَجْرْتُهُمْ مِمَّا اسْتَجَارُوا، قَالَ: يَقُولُونَ: رَبِّ! فِيهِمْ فُلَانٌ، عَبْدٌ خَطَاءً، إِنَّمَا مَرَّ فَجَلَسَ مَعَهُمْ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ: وَلَهُ غَفَرْتُ، هُمْ الْقَوْمُ لَا يَشْقَى بِهِمْ جَلِيسُهُمْ.”

Chapter 11. The Virtue Of Gathering To Read Qur'ân And To Remember Allâh

[6853] 38 - (2699) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'Whoever removes a worldly hardship from a believer, Allâh will remove one of the hardships of the Day of Resurrection from him. Whoever grants respite to (a debtor) who is in difficulty, Allâh will grant him relief in this world and in the Hereafter. Whoever conceals (the fault of) a Muslim in this world, Allâh will conceal him (his faults) in this world and in the Hereafter. Allâh will help a person so long as he is helping his brother. Whoever follows a path seeking knowledge, Allâh will make a path to Paradise easy for him. No people gather in one of the houses of Allâh, reciting the Book of Allâh and studying it together, but tranquility will descend upon them, mercy will overshadow them, the angels will surround them and Allâh will mention them to those who are with Him. Whoever is slowed down by his deeds, his lineage will not help him to get ahead.'"
